

The most important insights

Introduction: -

What makes the rate go up?

To can answer this question we should take a carful look to below important insights which make us understand the meaning of this analysis

And don't forget this analysis about the most lovely animal in this world

The first insight is:-

In the second insight we can detect the ration over time and it is very important to show how the ration become closer 1.0 by the time

The second insight is:-

In the second insight we can detect the increase of the number of tweets and favorites over time and it is very important to show how the retweets number increased and favorites also increased in average by the time however the favorites not increased with the same behavior of retweets

The third insight is:-

In the third insight we can find easlie the relation between the stage of the dog and retweet_count and favorite_count

